“When He (The Bab) reached Kinar-Gird a fresh order came from the Prime Minister appointing the village of KULAYN as an abode and dwelling-place. There He remained for a period of twenty days. After that, the Bab forwarded a letter to the Royal Presence craving audience to set forth the truth of His condition, expecting this to be a means for the attainment of great advantage. The Prime minister did not admit this”, A Traveler’s Narrative, Abdu’l-Baha, pp. 11
