“When He (The Bab) reached Kinar-Gird a fresh order came from the Prime Minister appointing the village of KULAYN as an abode and dwelling-place. There He remained for a period of twenty days. After that, the Bab forwarded a letter to the Royal Presence craving audience to set forth the truth of His condition, expecting this to be a means for the attainment of great advantage. The Prime minister did not admit this...a letter was issued addressed to the Bab in his Majesty’s own writing... Besides this the followers of the Bab recount certain messages conveyed {from Him} by the instrumentality of Muhammad Big {among which was a promise to heal the foot of the late king, but on condition of an interview, and the suppression of the tyranny of the majority}”, A Traveler’s Narrative, Abdu’l-Baha, pp. 11
