From the Writings of `ABDU'L-BAHÁ

‘Abdu’l-Bahá

Translated from Persian

O my affectionate sister!

God be praised, through His grace and favour, my health and well-being are now restored, but it is very hard for me to bear thine absence. We think of thee at all times, here on the slopes of this sacred, holy and blessed Mount Carmel, and we are being happy on thy behalf...

Notes:
From an unpublished Tablet addressed to the Greatest Holy Leaf