

From the Writings of SHOGHI EFFENDI

Shoghi Effendi

Original English

My great love for the Greatest Holy Leaf and my attachment to each one of you prompt me to add these few words in person and to express to you my gratitude for the expression of your valued sympathy. I greatly value your message, and will pray that the Almighty may bless your efforts in the service of a Cause for the sake of which our loved Khánum sacrificed her precious life.

Notes:

30 August 1932, to the Spiritual Assembly of the Bahá'ís of Berkeley, California

ORIGINAL