

Letters of THE GREATEST HOLY LEAF

Bahiyih Kkanum

Translated from Persian

Following the ascension of 'Abdu'l-Bahá to the Abhá Kingdom the only thing that can afford consolation to the heart of this grief-stricken and wronged maidservant is to see the lovers of that luminous Countenance happy, joyful and radiant and to behold the diffusion of the sweet savours of God, the exaltation of His Word, and the growth of His Faith. Nothing else matters.

The duty of the concourse of the faithful in this day should be but one duty, their purpose but one purpose, their aim but one aim, and the object of their endeavour but one object, and this is none other than to foster the spirit of unity and harmony, to serve and teach His Cause and to promote His Word. Such is the meaning of true faithfulness; and in this lies the good-pleasure of 'Abdu'l-Bahá.

Notes:

10 August 1922, to a believer in Alexandria, Egypt

TRANSLATION